FOOD & BEVERAGES at the FORT WORTH CONVENTION CENTER

Trinity Food & Beverage Services, Inc. is the exclusive food and beverage provider for the Fort Worth Convention Center. All catering and exhibitor booth catering must be ordered through Trinity Food & Beverage.

Exhibitors are only permitted to distribute individually wrapped candy or samples 3 oz or less of product they themselves represent or sell. Custom food and beverage services/displays may be hired from Trinity Food & Beverage Services, Inc. Trinity Food & Beverage Services, Inc. Guidelines

SAMPLES GUIDELINES

Exhibitors may hand out individually wrapped items, under 3 ounces in size, for display or sample in the Exhibit Hall if they fall along the guidelines listed below. Exhibitors cannot sell their sample product on the floor as a cash and carry item.

Permitted items include snack sized candies or peppermints that are individually wrapped for consumption. Remaining items, such as bottled water, soda, coffee, alcoholic beverages of any kind, cookies, popcorn, snacks, and meals must be purchased from the Trinity Food & Beverage catering department.

If Vendors would like to serve samples during a show, exhibitors must follow these guidelines:

- Sample items must be something the vendor manufactures (i.e., Gerber could serve samples of their new brand of baby cereal).
Sample size portions must be 3 ounces (or less).
Exhibitor must have a Food Handler's License and Health Permit to serve food.

OR

- Samples must be PREPARED in something vendor manufactures (i.e., Cuisinart could serve smoothies made in one of their blenders).
Sample size portions must be 3 ounces (or less).
Exhibitor must have a Food Handler's License and Health Permit to serve food.

I have read and understand the above:
